REMARKS

For whatever reason, unilateral changes in punctuation and in the font or format used for certain terms have been made to this patent publication by someone at the USPTO. For example, the abbreviation for Celsius "C" has been changed to "C." with a period next to the "C" symbol. Also italicization of certain Latin phrases "in vacu," "ortho," and "para" has been changed to a non-italicized form. Additionally sub-titles of the examples 1-9 have been changed by deleting the underscores and centering the titles.

No permission was sought from Applicants (nor given) with respect to these changes, all of which are unwelcome due to the fact that they are erroneous and that they improperly cause the issued patent to appear to be of inferior quality, when it would not have appeared so if issued as submitted.

While it is not believed that a Certificate of Correction is necessary, it is respectfully requested that the above comments be made of record in the file to address these unsolicited, unwelcome, and apparently unnecessary (and, in some instances, erroneous) edits made to the patent publication by an officious inter-meddler in the USPTO.

Respectfully submitted,

LUEDEKA, NEELY & GRAHAM, P.C.
